

Roslyn Layton, PhD

Economics and policy of Information Communication Technologies

Current Positions

Visiting Scholar, American Enterprise Institute, Washington, DC (2013-present)
Visiting Researcher, CMI, Aalborg University, Copenhagen, Denmark (2012-present)
Vice President, Strand Consult, Copenhagen, Denmark (2012-present)

Positions Held

2016-2017	President Elect Transition Team, Federal Communications Commission
2010-2012	Senior Director, Marketing Analytics, Klean, Copenhagen
2008-2010	Director, Search Agency Services, IBM Coremetrics, San Mateo, USA
2007	Business Development Executive, Innovation Labs-Hyderabad, TCS
2006-2007	Associate, TCS Netherlands, Amsterdam
2002-2006	Principal, Roslyn Layton Strategic Advancement, San Francisco
2000-2002	Financial Consultant, US Bancorp-Piper Jaffray, San Francisco
1997-2000	Assistant to the CFO, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art
1995-1997	Founder, Royal Tern Travel, Inc., Florida, USA

Education

1995	B.A. International Service/Economics/Japanese, American University, USA
2007	M.B.A. Rotterdam School of Management, Netherlands
2017	Ph.D. Aalborg University, Denmark, Business Economics

Thesis: Which Open Internet Framework is Best for Mobile App innovation?: An empirical inquiry of net neutrality rules around the world

Languages and Certifications

Data Analytics/Online Advertising
Languages studied at university level: Japanese, Spanish, French, Danish, Dutch
Series 7, 66, California Insurance, Broker/Financial Advisor Training
Florida Licensed Seller of Travel
Project Management/Scrum

Policy Articles in the Media

American Enterprise Institute
Forbes
US News and World Report
China Tech Threat
RoslynLayton.com